American String Quartet in Concert 13 Jan '24

At 2 P.M. on January 13, 2024, the American String Quartet, recognized as one of the world's finest quartets, will perform in concert at Bethel UMC Fellowship Hall, 4th & Market Streets in Lewes for the third time for a Coastal Concerts audience. The concert will be preceded at 1 P.M. by Lani Spahr's Performance Insights. The Quartet was expected to be joined in this concert by harpist Mariko Anraku but, unfortunately, Ms. Anraku had to cancel her appearance due to a recent medical issue.

The ASQ has spent decades honing the luxurious sound for which it is famous, performing in all fifty states and in the most important concert halls worldwide. The group's presentations of the complete quartets of Beethoven, Schubert, Schoenberg, Bartók, and Mozart have won widespread critical acclaim, and their MusicMasters Complete Mozart String Quartets, performed on a matched quartet set of instruments by Stradivarius, are widely considered to have set the standard for this repertoire. 2024 marks ASQ's 50th anniversary year.

The concert's program consists of works of Beethoven, Ravel and Dvorak. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit Coastal Concerts.org.

Coastal Concerts is supported in part by a grant from the Delaware Division of the Arts in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts. The Division promotes Delaware arts events on DelawareScene.com.
